The appointment of M. J. Murphy as a city trustee has brought about a change in the so-called commissionerships. Trustee Kibbler is now Commissioner of Streets and Trustee Murphy is Commissioner of Health and Safety.

L. S. Slevin, Notary Public.

Lewis Josselyn, Austin James, Phil Whiting, George Seideneck and W. L. Overstreet spent several days at C. W. Howland's camp near Idlewild last week, hiking most of the twenty-five miles. It was a enjoyable outing.

Miss Wadlin, county school nurse, paid an official visit to the local public school yesterday. She will be pleased to meet the parents at the school this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Owing to a technicality concerning the renewal of her certificate, Mrs. Madge Maurer will not teach at Bay School as contemplated, and the school will be closed indefinitely.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cunningham of Puget Sound, was here last week to look after her Carmel property interests and to visit her friends, the Devondors and Kibblers.

The Josselyns, mother and two sons, will arrive from the south tomorrow, to be here for several months.

Travelers down the Coast report the bridges south of Idlewild in very poor condition. They should be repaired now to insure safe travel this winter.

Mrs. F. C. Pudan and daughter Ruth motored down from San Jose last Sunday to spend the day.

Goold's Stage, Transfer and Auto Hire office now at old building across from Carmel Garage. Phone 605 W 5.

Dr. and Mrs. Preston W. Search and Mrs. Butler have been enjoying a camping trip down the Coast, locating at Post's and Idlewild.

Writing from New Orleans, on his journey to New York, Arthur Coleman says: "The imperial Valley is hot, the plains of Texas hotter, but New Orleans is hottest." Oh for the ocean breezes at Carmel!

Mrs. M. M. Tuttle, who has been sojourning here for several months, has returned to her home in Pasadena. Advertise in the Pine Cone.

You Must See This Unique Entertainment

On Monday evening next, at Art and Crafts Hall, Ann Dare will present Alfred Kreymborg in a recital of his poems, music and marionettes.

Of Kreymborg's work the Theatre Magazine says: "It is hoped that lovers of art throughout the United States will have an opportunity of becoming acquainted with Kreymborgian balcons, rag-pickers, willows and children, priests and scarecrows, graves and ghouls, moths and jesters and the rest of the dramatic poetic figures of which this young American is so rich a possessor and so lavish a spendthrift."

It is the aim of all little theatre directors to produce a Kreymborg play and his "Lima Beans" has been done from coast to coast.

Mr. Kreymborg is the first to introduce to Carmel the marionette theatre; this ought to bring out all the young people to see the puppets—and on this miniature stage he will do two of his delightful schurzo plays, "Jack's House" and "Lima Beans."

The program will consist of poem readings and recitations to the accompaniment of his mandoline, a stringed instrument, and the presentation of a marionette play.

Tickets for this unique entertainment are on sale at The Seven Arts, and there should be a large sale to young and old.

The first two rows will be held for children.
